 Sessions are flexible, if you have a topic or the work of a particular artist that you would like to pursue, rather than model and still life, then please feel free to do that, but let either Lesley or Sally P know in advance.

Additional notes

- The cost for each session is £3, this includes tea, coffee and biscuits.
- Sessions run from 10.00 to 12.30 at Eye Bowls Club. PLEASE DO NOT ARRIVE BEFORE 9.50 to allow the person 'setting up' time and space to prepare.
- Please try to limit conversation during working sessions, members find it difficult to concentrate if others are talking.
- Coffee time begins at 11.00 and finishes at 11.15 Please wash up your mug afterwards.
- There will be a show and tell of work at at 12.15.
- Sessions are flexible, if you have a topic or the work of a particular artist that you would like to pursue, rather than providing a model and still life, then please feel free to do that. Please let either Lesley or Sally P know if you intend to do this.
- Keep the still life simple. Most members only choose a small section of large ones!
- If you find these sessions a bit daunting it is always possible to pair up with another member and share both sessions.
- If your name is on the list to run a session and you are unexpectedly unable to do so, please contact another EAG member to do a swap. Let Lesley and Hannah know so she can change the programme on our website.
- In the event of bad weather – snow or ice, the session will be cancelled.
- More information on workshops will be circulated nearer the time.
